recruiting agents for violation of Section 10 of the Emigration Act, 1983 All State Government/Union Territories have been requested to instruct the Police Stations to keep strict vigil on the activities of the unregistered agents engaged in illegal violations.

(c) Under Section 22 of the Emigration Act, 1983, no Indian citizen can emigrate unless he/she obtains emigration clearance from the Offices of Protector of Emigrants (POE). However, through periodical reviews, the regulatory mechanism has been progressively liberalized and certain categories of persons have been exempted from the requirement of obtaining emigration clearance. Persons belonging to any of these categories are entitled to get the ENCR (Emigration Check Not Required) endorsement on their passports and consequently do not require to obtain any clearance from POE offices.
