

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FOOD, AGRICULTURE, COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT AND CO-OPERATION (SHRI ANNASAHEB SHINDE): (a) Yes, Sir. In the Conference, it was suggested by some Chief Ministers that subsidy on foodgrains prices could be withdrawn or reduced.

(b) The Central Government issue prices will go up if the subsidy is withdrawn. These prices are at present much lower than the open market prices of these grains. The increase in the Government issue prices in case of withdrawal of subsidy is not likely to have any appreciable effect on the market prices.

(c) The estimated subsidy on the distribution of foodgrains during the financial year 1967-68 is Rs. 119 crores. A proportionate amount would be saved depending on when the subsidy is withdrawn during the financial year.

(d) There is at present no proposal to withdraw the subsidy on the distribution of foodgrains.
