HOSTELS FOR GIRLS BELONGING TO THE BACKWARD CLASSES

*307. SHRI B. K. GAIKWAD: Will the Minister of PLANNING, PETROLEUM AND CHEMICALS AND SOCIAL WELFARE be pleased to state:

(a) the amount which was spent during the Third Five Year Plan period for the construction of hostels for girls belonging to the Backward Classes; and

(b) the amount which remained un-utilised during the said period and the reasons for non-utilisation?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL WELFARE (DR. SHRIMATI PHUL-RENU GUHA): (a) Rs. 14.00 lakhs (anticipated).

(b) Rs. 16 lakhs (anticipated) for the following two main reasons: —

(i) The scheme could not be taken up during earlier years of the Third Five Year Plan due to National Emergency declared in October, 1962;

(ii) Most of the applications received in regard to Scheduled Caste girls hostels were for the construction of new hostel buildings whereas the policy of the Government in respect of Scheduled Caste girls hostels is to give grants-in-aid for extension to existing hostel buildings only so as to avoid segregation.
