REFERENCE TO PRIME MINISTER'S STATEMENT IN THE OTHER HOUSE RE. RESIGNATION OF THE HOME MINISTER

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA (West Bengal): Sir, why do I rise to make a submission? Two standards cannot be followed in two Houses in parliamentary practice. Here in the morning we invited the attention of the Government to Mr. Nanda's statement and his letter to the Prime Minister. We asked question with regard to Mr. Hathi's statement which was made. Now the same thing arose in the other House. Adjournment motions have been given over this letter of the former Home Minister to the Prime Minister, which has been published, and also On the statement. Certain things happened and that House had to adjourn. Now, the Prime Minister made a statement in regard to that particular letter which Mr. Nanda wrote as Home Minister to the Prime Minister and which he has released to the Press. It is a public document. Thft Prime Minister—I do not know what she said—got up and made certain statements, gave an explanation and so on. We also wanted to have same thing here. But we were not allowed to have it and the Government did not take any notice of it. Tomorrow when the people read the papers they will see that in one House when the Opposition made this point it was not taken into account; even the Prime Minister did not come to this House even at that time or later on, when in the other House it went on whea
