

for the entire Diploma Course of 10 months from Members of the Institute and Rs. 1,600 from non-Members.

- (a) The fee includes the cost of provision of selected books and other reading material to the trainees.
- (b) This also includes the cost of travel of the trainees for outstation placement of 2½ months during the period of their practical training but does not include the cost of board and lodging. To the extent possible, the placement for practical training will be made at the station of posting of the trainee or at the station where the sponsoring organisation is located.
- (c) The fee does not include any expenses on local transport.

Board and Lodging.—The board and lodging arrangements at Delhi for the trainees during the period of the Course will be made either by the sponsoring organisations or by the trainees themselves. Where arrangements are desired to be made by the Institute for board, and lodging of the trainees, the Institute will render every assistance to do this. The Institute does not at present have its own hostel, and alternative arrangements will be made for the purpose. For making arrangement of moderate standard it is envisaged that an additional monthly expenditure of Rs. 300 will need to be incurred per trainee.
