

In 1963-64 most of the licences were renewed in due time. No new licence was granted. In 1963-64, and no new licences were granted renewed during 1964-65 except in the case of a petrol pump which was constructed in 1963-64 with the approval of the Delhi Development Authority and the New Delhi Municipal Committee.

(c) New licences were not granted as the general policy which should govern the grant of such licences in conformity with the Master Plan for Delhi was under consideration of the New Delhi Municipal Committee in consultation with the Delhi Administration and the Delhi Development Authority. The basic principles have now been decided and the applications are now under scrutiny. The New Delhi Municipal Committee hope to finalise the action for renewal of licences by the end of March, 1966.1
