MINIMUM WAGES OF CANTONMENT BOARD EMPLOYEES

497. SHRI JAGAT NARAIN : Will the Minister of LABOUR EMPLOYMENT AND REHABILITATION be pleased to state :

(a) whether it is a fact that the minimum wages in respect of Cantonment Board Employees were fixed in the year 1952 under the Minimum Wages Act;

(b) whether it is also a fact that the rates have not been revised so far despite the lapse of 13 years; and

(c) if so, what are the reasons therefor and what action Government propose to take to revise the rates ?

THE MINISTER OF LABOUR, EMPLOYMENT AND REHABILITATION (SHRI JAGJIVAN RAM): (a) Minimum Wages were fixed under the Minimum Wages Act, 1948, in respect of certain categories of Cantonment Board Employees in 1952 and in respect of other categories in 1954.

(b) It is not correct to say that the minimum wages fixed for Cantonment Board Employees in 1952 and 1954 have not undergone any revision since then. Government set up a National Industrial Tribunal in November 1958 to adjudicate certain disputes between the Cantonment Boards and their workmen. The Award of the Tribunal which was given in 1960 also laid down the scales of wages to be paid to the Cantonment Board Employees. These scales came into force with effect from 1-4-1959 and were operative till the 2nd April, 1963. Under the provisions of sub-section 2A of section 3 of the Minimum Wages Act, no action could be taken to revise the wages fixed in 1952 and 1954, so long as the proceedings were pending before the National Tribunal and its Award was in force.

(c) Action is in hand to review/revise Minimum Wages of Cantonment Board Employees.

(b) if so, the action taken thereon?

THE MINISTER OF LABOUR, EMPLOYMENT AND REHABILITATION (SHRI JAGJIVAN RAM): (a) Yes.

(b) The fixation of the rate of interest depends on the average yield from the Central Government securities in which the Fund's collections are invested. The rate has gone up from 31 percent, in 1962-63 to 41 percent, in 1965-66.
