

When the Assistant Commissioner went there recently about a couple of months back, there was a lot of representation made before him about the difficulties and disabilities being suffered by our Oriya people. In the Report also it is pointed out that there were certain demands made by the Oriya inhabitants residing in the Andhra area.

THE VICE-CHAIRMAN (SHRI M. P. BHARGAVA) : Mr. Patra, how long are you likely to take ?

SHRI N. PATRA : About five or six minutes.

THE VICE-CHAIRMAN (SHRI M. P. BHARGAVA) : You can continue after lunch. The House stands adjourned till 2.30 P.M.

The House then adjourned for lunch at one of the clock.

The House reassembled after lunch at half-past two of the clock, THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN in the Chair.

MOTION RE. SIXTH AND SEVENTH REPORT OF THE COMMISSIONER FOR LINGUISTIC MINORITIES—contd.

SHRI N. PATRA : Madam Deputy Chairman, earlier in the day I was speaking about the difficulties experienced by the Oriya pupils reading in the primary schools. Under the Mandasa Panchayat Samiti, there are a few predominantly Oriya villages and there are a large number of Oriya boys in the schools but there are no facilities for providing education to them in their mother-tongue. There is a demand there for separate schools for the Oriya boys. Even if the Andhra Pradesh Government is not prepared to grant separate elementary schools for the Oriya boys—though they are in large numbers in the schools—they could at least provide some sections for them and appoint Oriya teachers. As I was telling the House, the population of these outlying tracts, which have remained in Andhra Pradesh, consists of Oriya inhabitants to the extent of 20 to 25 per cent. There is not even advance registration. It
