CHINESE IN INDIAN TERRITORY

"351. SHRI B. C. PATTANAYAK : SHRI B. K. MAHANTI :

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state :

(a) the number of times the Chinese have intruded into the Indian territory during the last three months;

(b) whether they are still in our territory; and

(c) if so, the details thereof ?

THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SARDAR SWARAN SINGH) : (a) to (c) In the last three months there have been three instances of fresh intrusions by Chinese troops. In all three cases they have either gone back to Tibet or behind the line of actual control in Ladakh. Details are given in a note which was sent to the Chinese Government on the 21st July and later released to press. A copy is placed on the Table of the House.

Note given by the Ministry of External Affairs, New Delhi to the Embassy of China in India, the 21st July, 1966. No. C/11/66

The Ministry of External Affairs presents their compliments to the Embassy of the People's Republic of China in India and have the honour to state that since the middle of May 1966 Chinese troops have made the following intrusions into Indian territory:

- (i) On May 19, 1966, a Chinese patrol from Migyitun in Tibet intruded across the international boundary in the Eastern Sector into the Alubari area about a mile south of Longju in the Su.bansiri District of India's North East Frontier Agency. The Chi-nise patrol returned to Migyitun on the same day.
- (ii) On July 9, 1966, a Chinese patrol party was observed three miles inside Indian territory across the border in the vicinity of Muling La in the Middle Sector of the India-Tibet boundary.
- (iii) On July 16, 1966, a Chinese patrol party crossed the so-called 'line of actual control' in the Western Sector and intruded into a depth of about two miles into Indian territory near the Track Junction in the Daulat Beg Oldi area and indulged in reconnaissance activities. The Chinese Government are fully aware that the Track Junction is west of 'the line of actual control' and is in Indian territory which has never been disputed by China.

2. The Government of India lodge a troops of 'the line of actual control' in the People's Republic of China against these fresh instances of violation by Chinese troops of 'the line of actual control' in the Western Sector and the international boundary in the Middle and Eastern sectors of the border.

3. The Ministry of External Affairs avail themselves of this opportunity to renew to the Embassy of the People's Republic of China the assurances of their highest consideration.
