

STATEMENT

(a) The All India Handloom Board in its 25th meeting held on 30th May, 1966 has recommended that the rebate scheme on sale of handloom cloth produced by cooperatives should be continued in its present form during 1966-67.

(b) Central assistance to State Governments on development of handloom industry is given on the basis of actual expenditure incurred and furnished by them on this account. Figures of expenditure are furnished as a whole for the handloom industry, and separate figures for individual schemes such as rebate etc. are not furnished. Hence, no estimate of the expenditure involved on rebate is readily available; the information is being collected from the State Governments.
