

from Peking and from pro-Peking sources to send anti-Indian literature to India by various insidious means. In an attempt to elude detection by the Customs and Postal authorities, such literature is sometime mailed from various foreign countries. Government have not come across any large-scale inflow of such literature into Kerala from Ceylon, though some pamphlets are reported to have come in.

"I may assure the Members that constant vigil is being maintained in the matter and appropriate action is being taken under the law whenever necessary."
