

TERMINAL BENEFITS FOR DELHI TEACHERS

433. SHRI B. K. GAIKWAD: Will the Minister of EDUCATION be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a 'fact that the Delhi School Teachers' Association had approached Government for the granting of gratuity and pensionary benefits to teachers at the rates given to Central Government employees;

(b) if so, whether the said Association have refused to accept the terminal benefits for teachers as announced recently by Government; and

(c) the reasons for granting only terminal benefits instead of pensionary and gratuity benefits?

THE MINISTER OF EDUCATION (SHRI M. C. CHAGLA) : (a) and (b) The Delhi School Teachers' Association have expressed the view that the scheme is unacceptable to them and that they are in favour of Pensionary Benefits given to Central Civil Employees.

(c) After taking the various factors including financial aspect into consideration, the Government has decided upon the Terminal Benefit Scheme, providing for Contributory Provident Fund—Pension and Compulsory Insurance,

'A GUIDE TO 1961 CENSUS PUBLICATION PROGRAMME'

436. SHRI U. S. PATIL: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the number of copies of the publication, namely, "A Guide to the 1961 Census Publication Programme" printed by Government;

(b) what is the purpose and cost of publishing this volume; and

(c) who are the users of this publication?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI L. N. MISHRA): (a) 6,000.

(b) and (c). It gives details of the 26 important projects that have been undertaken in consequence of, or at tendant on, the 1961 census. There is a general persistent opinion that a national census is concerned with a head-count only and the work finishes soon after the head-count. But a national census in modern times is infinitely more purposeful and versatile than a head-count and embraces most aspects concerned with social, cultural, economic and national planning both at march and micro levels. The Guide is intended to give a detailed idea of each of the 26 major census projects and about 1500 volumes of publications. The cost is incurred on the general principles of census publications. The sale price of the Guide is Rs. 6.25P.
