SHRI R. S. KHANDEKAR:
SHRI D. THENGARI:
SHRI G. K. KAPOOR:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have taken a decision to set up joint consultative machinery for Central Government employees on the lines of the Whitley Councils; and

(b) if not, what are the reasons for the delay in the matter?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI JAISUKHLAL HATHI): (a) and (b) Government are making every effort to introduce the scheme as early as possible. Various organisations of Government employees have been consulted. Some of them have objected to certain aspects of the scheme. Their objections are being further considered and further meetings with the representatives of Government employees will be held shortly with the object of finding ways and means to introduce the scheme.
