U. N. CHARTER

*705. SHRI S. K. VAISHAMPAYEN: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is any proposal to revise the United Nations Charter, and

(b) if so, what are Government's views in the matter?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRIMATI LAKSHMI N. MENON): (a) and (b) There is only one proposal before the United Nations regarding the revision of the U.N. Charter, namely the expansion of the membership of the Security Council from 11 to 15 and of the Economic and Social Council from 18 to 27. At its 18th Session in 1963, the U.N. had adopted a resolution in this regard and had recommended to Member States to complete ratification of the amendments by September 1, 1965. India had co-sponsored and supported that resolution. India has already deposited with the U.N. Secretariat its instrument of ratification of the amendments proposed in the General Assembly's resolution. Although vague suggestions have been made in several quarters to review and revise the U.N. Charter, no concrete proposals have been made in this regard in the United Nations.
