MINISTRY OF DEFENCE NOTIFICATION

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF DEFENCE (DR. D. S. RAJU) Sir, I beg to lay on the Table a copy of the Ministry of Defence Notification S.R.O. No. 68, dated the 11th February, 1965, publishing a corrigendum to Government Notification S.R.O. No. 22 E, dated the 19th February, 1964 [Placed in Library See No LT-3897/65]

CHAIR'S RULING RE LAYING ON THE TABLE CERTAIN PAPERS RELATING TO ORISSA AFFAIRS

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA (West Bengal) Sir, before you pass on to the next item, I would seek your guidance on one matter. We are in a little difficulty. You, Sir, gave a ruling on the CBI Report. On the same day the Speaker of the other House gave a ruling also. Now, Sir, it appears on the face of it and some people have taken them to be different types of rulings. We are in the same Parliament. I am not saying which is right or which is good or bad. But personally I would like to have the position clarified. I presume that there is no fundamental difference between your ruling and the other ruling.

MR CHAIRMAN: You hold

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA I presume it and I think I am right, Sir.

SHRI AWADHESHWAR PRASAD SINHA (Bihar) Are we discussing the ruling given in the other House? On a point of order, Sir, can this House discuss a ruling given in the other House? And was this question put before you, Sir, before the gentleman came into the House? Did he intimate to the Chairman that he would be raising this question?

MR. CHAIRMAN : He has asked for my permission and I have allowed him.

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA : Why should the Member get excited these days ? What have I done to him ?

MR. CHAIRMAN : No dialogue. Mr. Gupta. Will you please address me ?

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA : All that I am saying, Sir, is that you will understand our difficulty. And it is not good also. I know we are bound by your ruling.

MR. CHAIRMAN : You know that ?

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA : It is quite clear and we have said that we submit to it. And now we had another elaborate ruling and it came from an august House. This House is also an august House and it is part of the Parliament and naturally, Sir, a situation arises which you will have to settle. I hope, therefore, there is no contradiction between the two rulings at all fundamentally, and I think, Sir, your ruling is a brief one and it covers the elaboration which is given in the other.

MR. CHAIRMAN : I am really not concerned with the other ruling. I have given my ruling and that ruling will operate in this House. The Speaker's ruling will operate in the Lok Sabha. It is for you to find out whether there is difference or not.

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA : Then Sir, the question arises and you will consider it. One may take a formalistic view of the matter under the rule. Under the rules we have got our rules and they have got their rules, and in matters such as these the rules are identical. The other thing we have got is the House of Commons practice which has been taken into account in that House, and I believe you had these also in mind. We have the same Parliament together. We may suppose, Sir, this arose in a joint session. Will you and the Speaker quarrel ? We want a synthesis. I understand now we did not have a joint session. But suppose in a joint session somebody raises it.

MR. CHAIRMAN : I do not suppose anything.

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA : You need not suppose, Sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN : I do not want to be drawn into any hypothetic discussion.

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA : A synthesis has to be found. A synthesis, Sir, has to be found. Please do not have, Sir, any impression that we are reflecting upon your ruling at all. Not at all. The thing is, as Members of this House and above all as Members of India's Parliament, we are faced with some difficulty. That is why I have raised this before you, seeking as I said in the beginning, light and guidance from you.

MR. CHAIRMAN : May I repeat again ? I have given my ruling and that ruling will be operative in this House. I do not think there is any necessity for synthesising. I do not think there is any antithesis. But that is not my business. I have given the ruling and it will be observed in this House. The Speaker's ruling will be observed in the other House and that is the end of it.

PANDIT S. S. N. TANKHA (Uttar Pradesh) : May I make a submission ?

MR. CHAIRMAN : Yes.

PANDIT S. S. N. TANKHA : Perhaps when you gave your ruling, Sir, certain precedents or rulings of the House of Commons were not brought to your notice.

MR. CHAIRMAN : I am not at all inclined to revise my ruling. I have had all the material that I needed to come to a decision and I have given the decision, and I have nothing more to say. I am very grateful to you for trying to be helpful, but it is too late.

PANDIT S S N TANKHA If you had all the material before you, Sir, including the precedents in the House of Commons then, of course I have nothing to say and your ruling is a ruling, which has certainly to be respected

MR CHAIRMAN I am afraid I will not continue this discussion There should be a limit I cannot go on repeating myself as some of us are inclined to

شری سمانپات میں ہمیشہ کے لیے کچھ نہیں کہہ رہا ہوں۔ آپ ہمیشہ کے لیے کہلوانا چاہتے ہیں۔ جب کوئی بات پیدا ہوگی تو اسے دے گا۔ جب ڈیموکریسی ختم ہوتی ہوگی اس وقت میں اسے دے گا، جب ڈیموکریسی بچتی ہوگی، اس کے لیے اسے دے گا۔

سری عبدالغنی : سری عرض نہ بھی کہ اس وقت انگلینڈ کی جو پارلیمنٹ ہے اس کی روایات کو ابھی تک ساری دنیا نے

مانا ہے کافی سائنڈار روایات ہیں اور وہ مناسب ہے ڈیموکریسی کے لئے۔ اگر ہاؤس آف کامنز کی سال جناب کے نوٹس میں لانا چاہیں تو کیا جناب اس کو سند نہیں فرمائیں گے؟
