

archaeologist whose services are not required.

श्री विमलकुमार मन्नालालजी चौरङ्गिया :
क्या श्रीमन्, यह बतलाने की कृपा करेंगे कि कुछ पुरातत्व विशेषज्ञ जो अपना निजी व्यवसाय कर के काम चलाते हैं, उनको कुछ व्यापारिक संस्थाएं धन की सहायता दे कर विदेशों में जानाजान के लिये भेजती हैं, ऐसी स्थिति में क्या भारत सरकार ने कोई ऐसी योजना बनाई है अथवा नहीं कि ऐसे लोग जानाजान के लिये विदेशों में जा सकें और वहां की और यहां की पुरातत्व की सामग्री का अध्ययन कर सकें ।

SHRI M. C. CHAGLA: In every department, whenever we can, we send our men abroad for improvement of knowledge or for attending international conferences. That applies also to the Department of Archaeology.

क्या श्रीमान को यह ज्ञात है कि मध्य प्रदेश के एक श्री हरिभाऊ वाकणकर प्राग ऐतिहासिक पुरातत्व वेत्ता के अपने क्षेत्र में विशेषज्ञ हैं और उनके ज्ञान का लाभ लेने के लिए सरकार ने क्या कार्यवाही की, इसके बारे में कुछ जानकारी है क्या ?

SHRI M. C. CHAGLA: I am not aware of individuals but if my hon. friend will write to me, I will certainly make use of his services and do what I can.

SHRI G. RAMACHANDRAN: Will the Minister of Education be pleased to tell us which of the Universities in India offers the best training in archaeology and if there are not enough facilities for such training what he proposes to do to correct the situation?

SHRI M. C. CHAGLA: I have not got information as to which Universities offer the best training in archaeology. That does not arise out of this question and I have not got the information.

श्री भगवत नारायण भार्गव : क्या मैं यह जान सकता हूँ कि इस योजना के लिए तृतीय पंचवर्षीय योजना में कितना रुपया रखा गया था और वह घटा कर के कितना कम कर दिया गया और कम कर देने का क्या कारण है ?

SHRI M. C. CHAGLA: The present position is that thirteen States are availing themselves of this scheme; the other three have not done so. The States are given various amounts as indicated in the statement. We are giving a hundred Per cent, assistance because it is a Centrally sponsored scheme.

श्री भगवत नारायण भार्गव : मेरे सवाल का जवाब नहीं दिया गया। मैंने यह सवाल किया था कि तीसरी योजना में कितना रुपया इस योजना के लिए रखा गया था और वह घटा कर के कितना कम कर दिया गया और कम कर देने का क्या कारण है ?

SHRI M. C. CHAGLA: The provision for the scheme in the whole Plan was thirty-three lakhs which has since been reduced to Rs. 10-50 lakhs. I do not know the reasons for the decrease but apparently steps are being taken to set up this institution in the various States. As I said, only thirteen States have so far availed of this particular assistance for this scheme.

श्री भगवत नारायण भार्गव : हर राज्य में एक एक यूनिट स्थापित की गई है। इस सम्बन्ध में मैं यह जानना चाहता हूँ कि जब एक यूनिट हर राज्य में स्थापित की गई है, तो उनको जो अनुदान दिया गया है उसमें इतना भारी भेद क्यों है जैसे पंजाब को केवल 590 रु० दिये गये हैं और बिहार को 54 हजार से अधिक दिये गये हैं ? इसमें जो अंकड़े दिये गये हैं, उनसे यह मालूम होता है कि कहीं खर्चा बहुत ज्यादा है और कहीं नाममात्र को खर्चा है, इसका क्या कारण है ?

SHRI M. C. CHAGLA: My hon. friend is not right. The amount given to the various States depends upon the state of development a particular State has reached or the bills that are submitted. We can only pay when the bills are submitted and Punjab is either very economical or it has not submitted any bills.

PROF. SATYAVRATA SIDDHANT-ALANKAR: Will the Minister of Education be pleased to state whether the evaluation units have held any "workshops" to train "method masters" in examination reforms?

SHRI M. C. CHAGLA: We have a scheme in the Centre, the Extension Scheme, which advises these units and these units for examination evaluation were set up as a result of the work done by the Central Evaluation Unit in the Directorate of Extension Programme for Secondary Education. I have not got the information as to whether any workshops were set up but I can supply that information to my hon. friend.

SHRI ARJUN ARORA: May I know whether these units are also entrusted with the responsibility of evolving methods to reduce the extent of copying and other undesirable methods in the examinations by the examinees?

SHRI M. C. CHAGLA: I wish my hon. friend can show me a scheme whereby I can bring that about.

SHRI G. RAMACHANDRAN: Since the Minister was good enough to tell us that a large number of States have taken advantage of financial assistance for this matter, is he in a position to tell us whether these States have done anything tangible yet in the reform of examination?

SHRI M. C. CHAGLA: Well, Sir, they have just started and I am sure all the States are working hard on it. They know the problem; they know that there is a lot of wastage in examinations; they know that the examination system should be improved. It is too early to make an assessment of the work done by the States.

SHRI G. RAMACHANDRAN: Is there any initiative that the Central Government has taken in this matter and if so what is the initiative which the Government has offered to the States to follow up?

SHRI M. C. CHAGLA: The initiative is, we supply them information, we supply them the result[^] of our research, we give them guidance, we give them moral support and we give them money. What more can we do?

श्री विमलकुमार मल्लालजी चौरडिया :
क्या श्रीमान यह बतलायेंगे कि जो तीन प्रान्त रह गये हैं जिन्होंने इस योजना के अन्तर्गत फायदा नहीं उठाया है वे कौन कौन से हैं और उन्होंने इसका उपयोग न लेने के बारे में क्या क्या कारण बताए हैं ?

SHRI M. C. CHAGLA: Madras, Jammu and Kashmir and Nagaland are not implementing the scheme. Of these, Madras did not consider it necessary to implement the scheme because of recent changes made by them in the examination system. Jammu & Kashmir has not sent any reply. As for Nagaland, the State was not in existence at the time the scheme was taken up.

SHRI G. RAMACHANDRAN: I was not thinking of moral support. This question of examination reform is one of the most urgent needs of this country and I am glad the Central Government have taken some steps towards examination reform. But is the Central Government or the Ministry of Education doing something to give them some kind of guidance? What kind of guidance have they been able to give?

SHRI M. C. CHAGLA: As I said, although these units have been set up in the States, we have not stopped thinking about the examination system in the Centre. Our National Council is working on it all the time. There is a Committee; there is research going on and we convey to the various States the results of this research and of our thinking.

MR. CHAIRMAN: You can take the horse to the water; you cannot make him drink.
