CALLING ATTENTION TO A MATTER OF URGENT PUBLIC IMPORTANCE

ALLEGED TAPPING OF THE TELEPHONE OF THE CHIEF MINISTER, PUNJAB, BY SOME EMPLOYEES IN THE CHANDIGARH TELEPHONE EXCHANGE

SHRI A. B. VAJPAYEE (Uttar Pradesh) : Sir, I call the attention of the Minister of Communications and Parliamentary Affairs to the alleged tapping of the telephone of the Chief Minister, Punjab by some employees in the Chandigarh Telephone Exchange.

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATIONS (SHRI B. BHAGAVATI): Sir, certain complaints had been received in the second week of this month that some officials of the Telephone Branch at Chandigarh were indulging in tapping of telephone conversation of the Chief Minister, Punjab, and passing information to other people. A senior Minister of the Punjab Government also met the Minister of Communications and mentioned about such rumours. The matter has been investigated but no evidence is available about tapping or over-hearing of telephone calls by the P&T staff, i.e. telephone operators or other employees of the P&T Department.

The Postmaster-General, Punjab, had a discussion on this matter with the Chief Minister and the Home Minister, Punjab, on the 23rd September, 1964. It has been explained to the Chief Minister by the Postmaster-General that, so far as could be ascertained through investigations conducted so far, no evidence of any tapping of telephones of the Chief Minister was available.

Careful vigilance is being kept to avoid any possibility of such tapping.

SHRI A. B. VAJPAYEE: May I know whether any telephone operators have recently been transferred following these complaints?

SHRI B. BHAGAVATI: Transfers are made because of administrative necessity and exigencies.

SHRI A. B. VAJPAYEE: Sir, the Chief Minister of Punjab is reported to have stated in the Assembly that he was in correspondence with the Central Government on this subject. Are we to understand that the Chief Minister did not make any specific allegations?

SHRI B. BHAGAVATI: He has only suspected that there might be some tapping and that is the matter which he indicated to the PMG by writing a letter to him.

SHRI A. B. VAJPAYEE: Is it not a fact that the Department of Posts and Telegraphs does indulge in tapping if it is asked by the Central Government or the State Government?

SHRI B. BHAGAVATI: No.

SHRI A. B. VAJPAYEE: What is the reply?

SHRI B. BHAGAVATI: It is not a fact. We do not resort to tapping in any circumstances.

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA: (West Bengal): As far as tapping is concerned, my telephone is tapped every day constantly and of all my colleagues.

AN HON. MEMBER: All of us.

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA: Anyway, we are not going into that. Some times it is tape-recorded.....

(Interruptions)

MR. CHAIRMAN: What do you mean by all of a sudden?

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA: You know it for a fact. There is so much of difficulty. Sometimes we cannot talk to other; because of tape-recording. You know it for a fact also. He would tell us that they did so. The example is set by the Central Government by tapping the telephones. Of the Opposition. Now, it has been arranged on them. Anyhow, the question here is this. The hon. Minister made a statement in which he said that the matter had been explained to the Punjab Chief Minister but he did not tell us in the course of the statement whether the Punjab Chief Minister was satisfied by the explanation that was given to him. Was the Punjab Chief Minister satisfied by what your officials told him and as a result, did he withdraw his allegations or charges?

SHRI B. BHAGAVATI: He was satisfied. I repudiate the suggestion made by the hon. Member that the Central Government resort to tapping of telephones of hon. Members.

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA: You come to my house. I invite you.

SHRI B. BHAGAVATI: I do not think anybody has any interest in tapping the telephones of hon. Members.

MR. CHAIRMAN: In any case, it is not done with your authority.

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA: Why should it not be? No, no. The Home Ministry gets it done.

SHRI A. B. VAJPAYEE: The Central Intelligence Bureau.

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA: The Central Intelligence Bureau.

SHRI A. B. VAJPAYEE: We know it for certain. (Interruptions) Sir, the Central Intelligence Bureau deposes its officers and the Department of Communications obliges them.

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA: Dr. B. C. Roy told me in conversation in Bengal.

SHRI A. B. VAJPAYEE: In the statement the hon. Minister referred I to a senior Minister of Punjab meeting the Minister of Communications.

Is it not a fact that that senior Minister gave certain names of telephone operators whom he suspected of in-n tapping?

SHRI B. BHAGAVATI: He spoke about this tapping generally. He might mentioned about somebody. I do not know.

श्री बिमलकुमार मन्नालालजी चौरङ्गिया
(मध्य प्रदेश) : क्या श्रीमान् यह बतलायेंगे
कि जिन लोगों के नाम चीफ मिनिस्टर ने
आपको बताया था और जिन स्थानों के
बारे में बताया था उनके बारे में भी विभाग
ने कोई जांच कर ली अथवा नहीं ? अगर
जांच कर ली, तो उसका क्या परिणाम
रहा ?

SHRI B. BHAGAVATI: The whole thing has been enquired into by the Postmaster-General himself and we have not come across any concrete evidence to establish any tapping so far.

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA: How? We would like to know the manner of investigation.

SHRI A. D. MANI (Madhya Pradesh): Following the answers given by the Minister, may I ask him what is the procedure which is followed? When the Central Intelligence Bureau wants to tap telephone calls, is the permission of the Ministry of Communications taken or are they informed later that certain calls were tapped? I would like the Minister to throw some light on the modus operandi of tapping.

SHRI B. BHAGAVATI: When there are allegations or complaints, then those officials there generally enquire into them. In this case the matter was also communicated to the Minister of Communications. He also asked him to enquire into the matter and the Postmaster General himself enquired into this matter

(Several hon. Members rose)

MR. CHAIRMAN: That is enough please.
