

10 Farm Leaders left for the U.S.A. during August-September, 1964. This batch of farmers will stay in the U.S.A. for a period of about 2 months.

The purpose of the Farm Leaders Exchange Programme is mainly to help Indian Farmers discover techniques, which can be adopted to India's small farm holdings and to build up friendship and understanding between the farmers of the two countries. Under this programme, 5 groups of American farmers totalling 68 visited India during 1960, 1961, 1962, 1963 and 1964. Only two groups of Indian

-farmers, aggregating 22, visited the U.S.A. in 1961 and 1962. Due to the 'Emergency' Indian farmers were not sent to the U.S.A. in 1963.]
