rity communities separated from their families either as a result of abduction or prevention from crossing over at the border with their refugee parents coming into India from East Pakistan and their being sold to different Arab countries; if so, what is the number of such girls?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRIMATI LAKSHMI N. MENON): The reply to this question is in two parts. Firstly, the Government is aware of abduction, conversion, etc., of girls and women of the minority community in East Pakistan. This matter forms an important part of the discussions between the Home Ministers of India and Pakistan.

Secondly, as regards the report of such girls being sent to the Arab countries for sale, enquiries have been made by our Deputy High Commissioner in Dacca who has stated that there is no truth in it.
