

Forcible stoppage of passenger trains in Andhra Pradesh

2522. SHRI RAVULA CHANDRA SEKAR REDDY: Will the Minister of RAILWAYS be pleased to state:

- (a) whether his Ministry is aware that there are forcible stoppage of passenger trains by the vendors and general public in Andhra Pradesh;
- (b) if so, the details thereof; and
- (c) the steps being taken by Government to stop such incidents?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS (SHRI NARAINBHAI RATHWA): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. 456 incidents of stoppage of passenger trains by the public were reported over Andhra Pradesh State during the year 2005. 456 persons responsible for forcible detection of passenger trains were apprehended and prosecuted under the provisions of the Railways Act. No incident of stoppage of passenger trains by the vendors was reported.

(c) The following steps are taken to prevent such incidents:—

1. Railway Protection Force (RPF) stall is being deployed for escorting of trains to prevent the incident of unauthorized Alarm Chain Pulling (ACP) in order to maintain punctuality.
2. RPF Staff are being deployed for bandobust duties in coordination with Government Railway Police/Local Police during Bandh, Agitation, Rail Roko etc. for smooth running of trains.
3. Culprits are being prosecuted under relevant sections of law.
4. Intelligence is being exchanged with Government Railway Police and Local Police regarding the potential mischief makers.
5. Coordination meetings are regularly held with Local Police and Government Railway Police (GRP).
