

MR. CHAIRMAN: You may not give any arguments now. You have already written to me about this and a decision will be taken on that.

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA: Sir, the appeal cases have been heard and the matter has been settled there. Now the matter has shifted back to Parliament. They want Parliament to go into this question.

MR. CHAIRMAN: I take due note of your request.

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA: Sir, this is a very important question which has to be discussed.

SHRI A. B. VAJPAYEE (Uttar Pradesh): May I know why no date has been fixed for discussion on the NEFA enquiry report? What about that discussion, Sir?

SHRI SATYA NARAYAN SINHA: All that we have promised is that we will have it before the House adjourns. There is some inconvenience regarding this motion to be brought forward by the Minister concerned. But I promise that before the House adjourns we will have this discussion here.

SHRI A. B. VAJPAYEE: Are we to understand that the Defence Minister is going to move the motion?

SHRI SATYA NARAYAN SINHA: Either he will move the motion or he will reply to the motion. But he is a very important person and, therefore, he must be here.

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA: Sir, we have got very many motions here and I understand the business before the House is not enough for this Session.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Well, you may be knowing things better. How do you know that there is not enough business and all that?

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA: Sir, you are too high but we are men of lower estate perhaps and, therefore, we do know about these things.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Do not be so modest.

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA: They have said that there is not enough business and, therefore, the House should adjourn on the 14th. Why should we adjourn on the 14th, Sir?

SHRI SATYA NARAYAN SINHA: That is absolutely wrong.

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA: I am glad that that rumour is wrong. Then, Sir, you take up all these motions. Seven I have given today, apart from the one mentioned.

MR. CHAIRMAN: We will now proceed to the next item.

THE CONSTITUTION (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1961 (TO AMEND THE FIRST SCHEDULE)—continued.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Now we shall proceed to the next item—The Constitution (Amendment) Bill, 1961. When the House had adjourned on the 3rd May, 1963 Shri Lokanath Misra was speaking. He is to continue his speech. But he is not here. Shri K. V. Raghunatha Reddy.

SHRI K. V. RAGHUNATHA REDDY (Andhra Pradesh): Mr. Chairman, Sir, the Bill that has been introduced by Shri Bhupesh Gupta contemplates the change of name from Madras State to Tamilnad State. Though this Bill appears to be a very simple one, i.e., changing only the name, behind this idea of changing the name there are emotions, sentiments and various psychological aspects in relation to culture, in relation to social attitudes, etc. and the tradition of the
