SHRI A. B. VAJPAYEE (Uttar Pradesh): Sir, we have given notice of a motion to raise a discussion on the border situation. May I know whether the Government have given any consideration to that motion? The other House is having a discussion on Monday. This House also should be given an opportunity to discuss that matter.

SHRI SATYA NARAYAN SINHA: That matter was discussed in the other House yesterday. It has already been discussed.

SHRI A. B. VAJPAYEE: I am speaking about the border situation, not about the power crisis, Sir.

SHRI SATYA NARAYAN SINHA: We are discussing it on the 13th in that House. This House would discuss it some time later.

SHRI M. S. GURUPADA SWAMY (Mysore): We want to know from the hon. Minister whether any day has been allotted. The Lok Sabha is discussing it on Monday.

MR. CHAIRMAN: The various dates have been mentioned. The other thing is for consideration.

REQUEST RE DISCUSSION ON POWER FAILURE IN DELHI

SHRI DAHYABHAI V. PATEL (Gujarat): Sir, I would like to draw your attention to the fact that a motion regarding the power situation in Delhi was discussed in the other House. This House also should be given an opportunity to discuss this situation.

Sir, when the Government is inviting us for a meeting of Parliament, at least the Government should see that ordinary conveniences that the Members require—to read the papers, etc., that are sent to us—are provided. Sir, I stay in a Government-managed hostel. Yesterday the power supply went off at 11 o'clock in the morning and it did not come back till after 8-30. This morning the power supply was cut off from about 8-30 and no power was available till I came to this House. If that is the serious situation with regard to power supply in the capital, at least Parliament should not be called. After all, Sir, heavens are not going to fall if we sit eight or ten days later. But with this sort of inconvenience how can we apply our mind to the legislative business that comes up here? I therefore submit to you, Sir, that in the interests of providing conveniences to Members you, as the custodian of the interests of this House, should put it to the Government that there is no necessity to hustle through with an, legislative business. After all, Sir, there is no urgent business before the House today and hon. Members should not be made to suffer these inconveniences. Sir, there is nobody responsible for this power failure, as appears to be the case from the debate in the other House. I do not know what to say about it, but surely there must be somebody responsible for this power failure. In this connection, Sir, I would like to point out the noble examples set by Shri Lai Bahadur when there was that serious railway accident and so many people had lost their lives. He was not driving the engine himself but still he felt that it was the responsibility of the Railway Ministry and he tendered his resignation. There are a number of hon. Ministers sitting on the opposite side who should likewise tender their resignation on account of this power failure. I at least for one would leave the capital if this situation is going to continue.

SHRI A. B. VAJPAYEE (Uttar Pradesh): Quite apart from the inconvenience caused to Members of Parliament, it is shame that after such a long period, the Government is not in a position to restore the power cut.

MR. CHAMAN: We are already having a 'No-Day-Yet-Named' motion . . .

SHRI T. S. AVINASHLINGAM CHETTIAR (Madras): There is already a motion before the House and I would like that time may be found on Monday for a discussion. It is disgraceful that such a state of things should be there.

MR. CHAIRMAN: The motion has been admitted as a 'No-Day-Yet-Named' motion and it would be for the Minister to say if a discussion could be arranged.

SHRI M. S. GURUPADASWAMY (Mysore): The report on L.I.C. is being put down for discussion next week and I suggest that it may be deferred for some time in the future so that we may have a discussion on the border situation.

SHRI A. B. VAJPAYEE: Pending a discussion on the motion, may I know why the Central Government should not declare a state of emergency and take over the generation and distribution of power in their own hands instead of blaming the Delhi Municipal Corporation or the State of Punjab?

MR. CHAIRMAN: This you will say in the discussion. You are at the moment wanting time.

SHRI A. B. VAJPAYEE: Yesterday they had a discussion and the Central Government says that they have no responsibility in the matter.

MR. CHAIRMAN: We are not discussing the question. We are discussing the question of having a discussion. So we cannot discuss. That matter has been very effectively pointed out.

SHRI A. D. MANI (Madhya Pradesh) : I would like to add to what my friend Mr. Patel said that yesterday in one of the Government hostels the power was cut off from 11 A.M. to 8 P.M. I made enquiries for a candle and I was told that the request that the Members of Parliament should be supplied with candles in their rooms was turned down by the Estate Office as being too costly. We cannot function . . .

MR. CHAIRMAN: These details do not belong at this stage. If you have a discussion, you will say all that. The point you are making is that there should be a discussion.

DR. A. SUBBA RAO (Kerala): Some time may be allotted on Monday itself to discuss this failure of power. It is a serious situation. It cannot be postponed for the next week. We must discuss it on Monday itself at least.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Who knows? It might be quite up-to-date next week.

SHRI GANGA SHARAN SINHA (Bihar): As the motion has been admitted, I would like you to fix a date as soon as possible. It is better that you fix it on Monday.

MR. CHAIRMAN: It is not for me to fix a date. I have admitted the motion as a 'No-Day-Yet-Named' motion and the date has to be fixed by the Minister for Parliamentary Affairs.

SHRI GANGA SHARAN SINHA: We have a feeling that it would be possible to fix a date. The Minister is here. The matter is so urgent and important. It must not be delayed.

THE MINISTER OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS (SHRI SATYA NARAYAN SINHA): In any case we cannot have it earlier than Monday.

SHRI GANGA SHARAN SINHA: We are prepared to sit and we can have it on Saturday if you like.

SHRI SATYA NARAYAN SINHA: Formally we will inform the House some time to-day but you must give me some time. I say that it cannot be earlier than Monday in any case.

SHRI A. B. VAJPAYEE: It should not be later than Monday.

SHRI GANGA SHARAN SINHA: If the Government is prepared, the House may be prepared to sit even tomorrow. We at least are ready.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you. Mr. Satya Narayan Sinha, you will let me know.

RESULT OF ELECTION TO THE CENTRAL ADVISORY BOARD OF ARCHAEOLOGY
