STATEMENT

The Kerala Grandhasala Sanghom applied for Central Government grant under the Scheme of 'Assistance to Voluntary Educational Organisations' for the following five projects, which were examined and the decisions arrived at, as indicated against each, were communicated to the Sang-hom: —

1. Institution of a library training course.—The project was not found to fall within the purview of the Scheme and as such did not qualify for Central Government assistance.

2. Preparation of a bibliography in Malayalam.—The Sanghom was advised to apply to the Ministry of Scientific Research and Cultural Affairs for assistance under the Scheme 'Development of Modern Indian Languages'.

3. Publication of books in Malayalam on library Science and Social education.—A grant of Rs. 2,400 at 60% of the estimated cost of Rs. 4,000 was approved for the publication of two books in Malayalam on social education. The grant will be released after some necessary information called for from the Sanghom is received.

4. Setting up of Taluka Central libraries.—The project will be considered after reply to clarifications sought from the Sanghom and the State Government is received.

5. Library intensive area scheme.—The project appeared to overlap with the proposed Taluka libraries and the functions of the Community Development projects and as such was not considered for Central assistance.
