SHRI A. B. VAJPAYEE (Uttar Pradesh): May I know Sir, why the Government have discontinued the publication of White Papers in regard to the correspondence that we have had with China.

SHRI DINESH SINGH: The Chinese notes as also our replies have been laid on the Table of the House from time to time after the White Paper had been published. It was thought much easier to place them on the Table of the House as and when they came rather than to wait to collect and print them.
