STATEMENT re SHORTAGE OF POWER IN;
CALCUTTA AREA

THE DEPUTY MINISTER OF IRRIGATION AND POWER (SHRI J. S. L. HATHI) ; Sir, I beg to lay on the Table a statement regarding the shortage of power in the Calcutta area [See Appendix XXXIII—X'XXIV An-nexure No. 15.]

And with your permission, Sir, I would like to say that though in the last line of the first paragraph it is stated, "The second unit is likely to be back in service within this week", I am glad to say that that unit has already come into commission this morning. And so there will be consequential changes in the last paragraph on page 3 where it is stated: "The position is likely to improve from today with one unit at Durgapur having already gone into commission?" It should now be "two units at Durgapur" since the second one has also come up.

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA (West Bengal): Sir, I submit that the statement should be read out or we should be supplied with copies. Otherwise we do not understand what is happening, every time the statement is made. Now I want to know whether in this statement that the hon. Minister just now laid on the Table there is some reference to the allegation in Calcutta that the Cossipore generators went out of action just because the Government of West Bengal did not sanction a new unit to be started and the-
