

1954 and 1955 and transferred to Delhi Division in August, 1958 at their own request, have been given the benefit of their previous service and placed senior to those who were appointed in 1947;

(c) whether Government have received any representation from the goods clerks in this regard;

(d) if so, what action Government have taken in the matter, and

(e) what are the reasons for which other Railway employees are not given the benefit of their previous service when transferred to other Divisions at their requests?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER OF RAILWAYS (SHRI S. V. RAMASWAMY): (a) Yes, for the purpose of seniority only.

(b) The transfers referred to were ordered on administrative grounds.

(c) and (d) Yes, the representation is under consideration.

(e) The present practice safeguards the interest of staff already working in the Division to which transfer is sought; further it helps in keeping down the number of requests for transfers.
