

limit has been raised from Rs. 2,000 to Rs. 3,600 on account of the high cost of living;

(c) if the answers to parts (a) and (b) above are in the affirmative, whether Government consider the feasibility of raising the limit of Rs. 5,000 to a reasonably high amount; and

(b) if not, why not?

THE MINISTER OF EDUCATION (DR. K. L. SHRIMALI): (a) to (b) A statement is laid on the Table of the Rajya Sabha.

STATEMENT

(a) The Government are aware that a higher rate of fee is charged in accordance with the Education Code from students whose parents' income is more than Rs. 5,000 per annum but the rate is not double of the rate charged from students whose parents' income is less than Rs. 5,000.

(b) The free income-tax limit was raised from Rs. 2,000 to 3,600 under the Finance (No. 2) Act, 1957, whereas the rates of fees were prescribed by the Delhi Administration a very long time ago.

(c) and (d) The question of either prescribing a uniform rate of fees for all or for further raising the present limit of Rs. 5,000 is under the consideration of the Delhi Administration.
