

order to stop this practice, necessary provision has been made in the Trade and Merchandise Marks Act, 1958, to prohibit the use of misleading trade descriptions on goods such as that mentioned in part (a) of the question. This is now a criminal offence and those indulging in such practice will be dealt with in accordance with the law. The cases which came to the knowledge of the Government of India have been referred to the State Governments concerned for investigating and taking action under the Trade and Merchandise Marks Act.

GRANT OF ALLOWANCES TO DELHI UNIVERSITY EMPLOYEES

429. SHRI PURNA CHANDRA SHARMA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether the employees working in the research on Nuclear Physics which is being carried out in Delhi University with the Central aid, are given local allowances, i.e., (i) House Rent Allowance, (ii) City Compensatory Allowance; and (iii) Interim Relief of Rs. 5.00 at par with other Central Government employees; and

(b) if not, what are the reasons therefor?

THE PRIME MINISTER AND MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI JAWAHARLAL NEHRU): (a) Employees working on research schemes in Delhi University and other institutions financed by the Department of Atomic Energy are not at present paid local allowances, namely (i) House Rent Allowance, and (ii) City Compensatory Allowance; nor are they paid Interim relief of Rs. 5.00.

(b) The pay and allowances of such employees were some years ago based on the pattern of the pay and allowances admitted by Universities and other Institutions, which did not then include these allowances. The fact that these allowances are now being admitted by some Universities has recently been brought to the notice of the Department and the request received from these Universities for the grant of such allowances is under consideration.
