†[THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT AND COMMUNICATIONS (SHRI RAJ BAHADUR): A statement is laid on the Table of the Sabha.

STATEMENT

Nearly Rs. 91 lakhs have been given by the Central Government to the Government of Bihar as grants-inaid. No loans specifically for road schemes are given to States. They can, however, finance these projects from loans which the Ministry of Finance grant to States for miscellaneous development schemes under the State Plans. Road schemes involving an expenditure of Rs. 4.93 crores during 1957-58 and 1958-59 were approved by the Planning Commission for being financed from such loans during the current Plan period.]
