SHRI KAILASH BIHARI LALL: May I know if the Government is aware that newsprint is sold in the market at a higher rate than what the actual price for it is?

SHRI N. KANUNGO: We have not received any complaint from any State Government or any responsible party so far. The fact is that there is a shortage of newsprint and most of the publishers have got to reduce their anticipated publications.

SHRI M. P. BHARGAVA: May I know whether it is a fact that the newsprint allotted to one of the big daily papers of Calcutta was found in a paper merchant's shop?

SHRI N. KANUNGO: Well, I take the information. I will investigate it if further details are given by the hon. Member.

SHRI DAHYABHAI V. PATEL: Do I take it that Government is actively considering the suggestion?

SHRI N. KANUNGO: No, Sir. After consideration in the past, they have decided not to undertake this step.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Question hour is over.
