

backward classes, and scheduled castes and tribes?

SHRI B. N. DATAR: No, Sir; except when the promotion has to be on the basis of an examination.

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA: May I know, Sir, whether the Government is aware of the demand among the government employees that the so-called division between Upper Division Clerks and Lower Division Clerks should be abolished and that the Upper Division Clerks should be treated as Assistants?

SHRI B. N. DATAR: So far as these two divisions of clerks are concerned* may I invite the attention of the hon. Member to the fact that whenever vacancies have to be filled in, 50 per cent, are filled from direct recruits and 50 per cent, by departmental candidates and, therefore, there is scope for promotion from Upper Division Clerks also to Assistants' grade.

SHRI BHUPESH GUPTA: May I know, Sir, having regard to the work that the Upper Division Clerks do, why the Government are not putting them—these Upper Division Clerks—in the category of Assistants, particularly when the Government themselves are saying that they can take 50 per cent, from that category.

SHRI B. N. DATAR: These things are entirely different from the question.
