STATEMENT 'B'

The steps taken to prevent misuse of the alarm chain apparatus are: —

- (i) Conducting a campaign against this evil in the press and by posters, and also by-announcements on the microphones provided at important stations.
- (ii) Organising more effective measures against habitual offenders in collaboration with State Governments including the State Police Authorities.
- (iii) Prosecution of the offenders when they can be identified.
- (iv) Blanking off of alarm chain appartus in the badly affected sections.
- (v) Posting of plain clothed Police and Railway Protection Force men in compartments on certain portions of the Railways.
- <vi) Seeking the cooperation of the authorities of educational institutions by instilling in the minds of students a sense of discipline and obedience of the law, thereby minimising their participation in the anti-social activity of alarm chain pulling.

The evil of alarm chain pulling has continued unabated, despite the above preventive measures.

A proposal to amend section 108 of the Indian Railways Act, 1890, making the misuse of alarm chain a cognizable offence and enhancing the punishment from a fine up to Rs. 50 to imprisonment up to 3 months or a fine up to Rs. 250 or both, is at present before the Parliament. It is hoped that the enhanced punishment to be inflicted under the proposal will prove to be a greater deterrent and will result in a substantial abatement of the evil.]
