

(c) The question has since been considered in consultation with the Law Ministry. The lessee is liable to pay royalty on timber actually exported and also on the difference between the quantities fixed as ceiling for export and the quantity extracted during any particular year. He is also liable to pay royalty on firewood and all forest produce other than timber. In this connection the question of revising the ceiling figures guaranteed under the Agreement is under consideration.

(d) The amount claimed so far from the lessee is in respect of the quantity of timber extracted. No royalty has yet been claimed in respect of the shortfalls between the guaranteed quantity and the quantity extracted pending a decision on the question of revision of the ceiling figures guaranteed under the Agreement. The question of waiver or withdrawal does not arise at this stage.
