THE REQUISITIONING AND

ACQUISITION OF IMMOVABLE
PROPERTY (AMENDMENT) BILL,
1958—continued.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. Chanda, you were in the middle of your speech.

THE DEPUTY MINISTER OF WORKS, HOUSING AND SUPPLY (SHRI ANIL K. CHANDA): Mr. Chairman, yesterday when we adjourned for the day I had already given the figures of the Government's requirements of office buildings and lands and I had also given the figures of the requisitioned properties still held by the Defence Ministry. Hon. Members from the other side wanted more detailed figures with regard to the requisitioning and acquisition of properties. I have them with me. Of course, I do not want to tire the House with too many details, but the broad outlines of the picture, I think, should satisfy the hon. Member. In Delhi, which includes Delhi and New Delhi, the number of buildings requisitioned since 1952 is 163 and the number of buildings derequisitioned during this period is 346.

SHRI KISHEN CHAND (Andhra Pradesh): May I know the number of requisitioned buildings which were continuing before 1952?

SHRI ANIL K. CHANDA: The figures for Delhi are like this:

Number of buildings under requisitioned prior to the Act coming into force—(I am referring to the Act of 1952)—273.

Number of buildings de-requisitioned during 1952-57—12.

Number of buildings de-requisitioned during 1952-57—168 (including parts of the buildings).

Number of buildings under requisition as on the 1st January 1958—117.

That is, we started before 1952 which 273; it is now—117.
