SHRI V. K. DHAGE: It is a little confusing. However, may I know whether excise offences have gone up very much since the inauguration of prohibition?

SHRI B. N. DATAR: The hon. Member is not right. He probably knows that there has been a special squad known as the anti-smuggling squad at work and that is the reason why there is an Increase in the quantities seized and also in the number of accused persons.

MR. CHAIRMAN: He says there is more detection.

SHRIMATI SAVITRY DEVI NIGAM: May I know whether in spite of the notable decrease in the incidence of smuggling and illicit distillation, more such cases have been caught because the police and the excise department are working more earnestly and more vigilantly and they are taking the fullest cooperation of the social workers?

MR. CHAIRMAN: That is what he said.

DR. P. C. MITRA: How has the liquor been disposed of?

SHRI B. N. DATAR: In the usual way, Sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Next question, Mr. Panigrahi.

SHRI V. K. DHAGE: No answer to my question?
