10. T.R.A.O. West' West Bengal (excluding Bengal (attached to including Calcutta District? Telephone District) and Orissa District).
ii. Madras Telephone Madras Circle, in-District. eluding Madras District.
12. T.R.A.O. Andhra Andhra and Hyderabad and Hyderabad st bad. Circles. Madras.
13. T.R.A.O., Shil- Assam Circle, long.

2. The offices mentioned at items (3), (4), (5) and (12) have to be shifted out of Delhi and Madras where they are at present located. The main difficulty in shifting the offices to the Circles concerned is lack of suitable office accommodation, and secondly, non-availability of suitable number of volunteers who would hike to go to the new place.

The Postmaster-General, Bombay, has intimated that no office accommodation is available at Baroda and that none is expected to be available even after inviting tenders.

The question of shifting T. R. A. O. (Central) which is dealing with part of the Bombay Circle and Rajasthan Circle has been kept pending a decision on the question of realignment of existing Postal Circles with State boundaries.

As regards shifting of T.R.A.O. (North), attempts to secure office accommodation were made at Patiala and Nabha but without any success. Steps are now being taken to ascertain, if suitable office accommodation can be had at Jullundur.

The Director, Posts and Telegraphs, Hyderabad, has been asked to invite open tenders for securing office accommodation at Hyderabad.
