STATEMENT

State Governments' views on the use of Ghani Oil

The State Governments of Bihar, Rajasthan, Madras, Andhra Pradesh, Orissa and the Union Territories of Delhi, Pondicherry, Tripura and Andaman and Nicobar Islands have by now furnished their views on recommendation No. 24 of the Oilseeds Crushing Industry Inquiry Committee which reads as follows:—

"Government's requirements of vegetable oils for use in hospitals, jails, police establishments, masses, hostels etc., should be met by the purchase of ghani oil only."

The views expressed by the above said State Governments are detailed below:—

1. Bihar.—The State Government agree to the recommendation to the extent the ghani oil is available and provided its cost is not too high.
2. Rajasthan.—No objection to use linseed oil crushed in ghani in police establishments where it is used on wooden parts of weapons. As regards jails no objection to use ghani oil provided standard makes of ghani oil are prescribed.
3. Madras.—Generally in agreement provided the ghani oil can be standardised.
4. Andhra Pradesh.—No objection to use ghani oil provided that continuous supply of ghani oil is assured and that the cost is not higher than that of mill oil.

5. Orissa.—No objection to use ghani oil as far as practicable provided the same is available at reasonable cost.
6. Delhi.—No objection to use ghani oil wherever possible.
7. Pondicherry.—Generally in agreement with the recommendation.
8. Tripura.—Recommendation is acceptable.
9. Andaman and Nicobar Islands.—No objection to agree to the recommendation.
