

SHRI N. KANUNGO: Hard to anticipate.

SHRI KISHEN CHAND: Is the Minister aware that large quantities of Virginia tobacco are lying with producers in Andhra Pradesh and that efforts are being made by the Government of India to export that tobacco and when that is the situation, why are we permitting imports?

SHRI N. KANUNGO: There are different qualities but these qualities are inferior to the ones imported.

THE DEPUTY MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRIMATI LAKSHMI MENON): Yes, Sir; the period of amnesty has been extended.

SHRI P. C. BHANJ DEO: May I know since the extension of the period of amnesty how many hostile Nagas have surrendered and how many more are estimated to be still free?

SHRIMATI LAKSHMI MENON: 87 hostiles have surrendered till the 5th December 1957.

SHRI P. C. BHANJ DEO: May I know what action Government propose to take against those hostile Nagas who have not yet responded to the offer of the Prime Minister of 25th September?

SHRI JAWAHAKLAL NEHRU: That will be considered when the period given to them for surrender has lapsed and in the light of the circumstances then prevailing.

SHRI V. K. DHAGE: The question was how many still are rebelling?

MR. CHAIRMAN: He says that the period of amnesty has not yet expired. We have to wait till the amnesty expires and then consider the question of those who have not surrendered.

SHRI JAWAHARLAL NEHRU: I think Mr. Phizo is still in the land of the living.

The Resolution setting up the Panel is placed on the Table of the House. [See Appendix XIX, Annexure No. 50.]

SHRI S. N. MISHRA: Certainly, when we are discussing the State Plans from year to year, all these schemes come up for consideration.

SHRI S. N. MISHRA: I would like him to refer to the question that was put by the hon. Member Shri Amolakh Chand. He asked about the Panel. The Panel is an advisory body. The schemes from the State Governments come up for consideration of the Planning Commission as a whole. It is in regard to the scheme submitted by the Ministry of Housing here. This Panel has not much to do so far as these concrete schemes are concerned. This is only an advisory Panel.

SHRI K. C. REDDY: In respect of that question, may I say, that the Rural Housing scheme which has been submitted to this House has been duly examined by the Planning Commission and it has been considered in the Cabinet and it has been decided there.
