AGRICULTURAL INFORMATION WORKSHOPS

1242. SHRI M. VALIULLA: Will the Minister of FOOD AND AGRICULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) how many group meetings of workers of Agricultural Information Workshops were held in each of the last two years; and

(b) in what material respects the meetings have proved to be useful?

THE MINISTER OF FOOD AND AGRICULTURE (SHRI A. P. JAIN):

(a) Ten Agricultural Information Workshops which are group meetings for imparting training were organised during the last two years. Nine were held in the States and one at Delhi as under:—

1955-56 (ending 31st July, 1956). 7
1956-57 (ending 31st July, 1957). 3

(b) Dissemination of agricultural information to farmers on improved farm practices has assumed considerable importance in the context of agricultural production. The State Governments have been assisted to strengthen their Agricultural Information Units to be effective instruments in disseminating such information. These workshops were arranged to give in-service training to Information personnel of the States in the techniques of producing simple and effective information literature in regional languages for Village Level Workers and farmers. Practical training was also given in the preparation of other information media, such as flannel-ographs, posters, charts, etc. which are useful to the Village Level Workers in organising group meetings and in conducting campaigns in rural areas. Such periodical training helps the
