

information is being collected and will be laid on the Table of the House in due course.

(c) The two journals are printed on hand-made paper which is costlier than mill-made paper. The subscriptions for the two journals have not been fixed, having regard to the cost of production. The journals are primarily meant for disseminating information relating to khadi and village industries and for discussing problems concerning these industries. The profit or loss aspect in the context of these publications is, therefore, not relevant.
