

(a) whether Government are aware of the arrival of a large number of Portuguese troops in the Daman Port during April 1957; and

(b) whether Government have lodged any protest with the Portuguese Government against such massing of troops?

THE PRIME MINISTER AND THE MINISTER FOR EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI JAWAHARLAL NEHRU) : (a) The Government of India have seen reports in the press that about 1,400 troops left Portugal in the first week of April, 1957, for Daman port to relieve an equal number of troops stationed there.

(b) No.

SHOOTING OF GOAN NATIONALS BY PORTUGUESE AUTHORITIES

47. SHRI M. VALIULLA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether any Goan nationals have been shot dead by the Portuguese authorities in Goa during the last five years; and

(b) if so, how many?

THE PRIME MINISTER AND THE MINISTER FOR EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI JAWAHARLAL NEHRU): (a) and (b). From time to time there are newspaper reports of shooting of Goan nationalists by the Portuguese Army and Police. The Government of India have no diplomatic mission in the Portuguese Possessions in India and, thus, such shooting incidents cannot be corroborated through any other source.

ADMISSION OF INDIAN STUDENTS IN SOUTH AFRICAN SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES

48. SHRI M. VALIULLA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether the students of Indian origin in South Africa are admitted into schools and colleges where European students are also studying; and

(b) if the answer to part (a) above be in the negative, whether Government have taken any steps in the matter?

THE PRIME MINISTER AND THE MINISTER FOR EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI JAWAHARLAL NEHRU): (a) In most of the schools and universities in South Africa, there is racial segregation. In the Universities of Cape Town and Witwatersrand, where segregation does not exist, it will be enforced as a result of the "Separate University Education Bill", which is now before South African Parliament.

(b) The Government of India have already brought to the notice of the U.N. General Assembly the wider issue of the status of Indians in South Africa in general and have also condemned the various apartheid measures of the Union Government.
