

A provision of Rs. 40 lakhs has been made for Television under the Second Five Year Plan proposals, which have been approved by Parliament. Work on the Bombay television station is scheduled to commence in 1957-58 and a budget provision has accordingly been proposed during the next financial year. Meanwhile surveys are being conducted for the selection of a suitable site at Bombay. Equipment for the purpose of experimental investigation at Delhi has been purchased. Steps for securing technical advice about the standards, frequency of operations etc. in relation to Indian conditions have been taken.
