

डा० के० एल० श्रीमाली : सभा की पटल में जो विवरण रखा गया है, उसमें जो कुछ इतिहास में पास है, दी गई है।

DR. SHRIMATI SEETA PARMANAND: The Minister just now said that the Central Ministry selects books and asks the State Ministries to purchase them. Does this mean that it does not ask them for suggestions on selection of books?

DR. K. L. SHRIMALI: I think I had better explain the full scheme to the Members so that that might be clear.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Give a short answer. Do not explain the whole thing.

DR. K. L. SHRIMALI: I think I have already explained that we invite these publishers to submit the books to the Ministry of Education. The Ministry of Education then examines these books and on our recommendation they are purchased by the State Governments for distribution among the social education centres. That is the procedure we have laid down.

SHRI H. P. SAKSENA: Does it mean that the Government of India examine the books through the agency of Jamia Millia?

DR. SHRIMATI SEETA PARMANAND: I wanted the information whether the State governments also recommend the books or they have no say in it

DR. K. L. SHRIMALI: No, Sir.

PROF. G. RANGA: Is any effort being made to increase the plantations of the Babool so that they can have the required amount of bark, or is it the intention of the Government to give whatever bark they get from the babool trees?

DR. K. L. SHRIMALI: The Government are trying to explore some other substitutes for babool so that there may be no shortage.

SHRI H. C. MATHUR: Am I to understand that they are in short supply of babool, since there is abundant unused babool?

DR. K. L. SHRIMALI: I am afraid I cannot give an answer to that question just now, but it is always an advantage to have some substitute for the babool.

PROF. G. RANGA: May we know what steps are being taken to see that they explore all possibilities of obtaining the babool bark in sufficient quantities?

DR. K. L. SHRIMALI: It is for the Ministry of Agriculture to consider that suggestion.

(2) In May 1955, four Regional Committees of the Hindi Shiksha Samiti were set up (i) to tour their respective regions and survey the work done, if any, for the propagation of Hindi, (ii) to draw up a programme in this behalf, (iii) to examine the schemes put forward by the organisations of the regions concerned and to explore the possibilities of and suggest schemes for the spread of Hindi in the regions concerned and (iv) to suggest any programme to the States so that they may fix certain targets for inclusion in the Second Five Year Plan. The Regional Committees are expected to submit their reports to the Government of India by the 31st October 1955.
