THE PARLIAMENTARY SECRETARY TO THE MINISTER FOR EDUCATION (DR. K. L. SHRIMALI): (a) and (b). The matter is under consideration.

DR. P. V. KANE: Max I know whether the matter is likely to be decided in the near future and whether some provision will be made in the next year's Budget?

DR. K. L. SHRIMALI: As I said, Sir, the matter is under consideration and it is likely to be decided in the near future.

SHRI S. N. MAZUMDAR: May I know whether the consideration stage also involves the consultation of some Indologists and the inviting of their views?

DR. K. L. SHRIMALI: Yes, some experts have been consulted and their advice is being taken into account.

SHRI S. N. MAZUMDAR: May I know as to who have, been consulted?

DR. K. L. SHRIMALI: Among the experts whom we have consulted are Dr. Chatterjee and Dr. Nilakanta Sastri.

SHRI S. N. MAZUMDAR: Could the hon. Parliamentary Secretary give an indication of the advice given by Drs. Chatterjee and Sastri?

MR. CHAIRMAN: It is under consideration.

SHRI S. N. MAZUMDAR: I am asking about the advice given.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Advice is being considered.

DR. K. L. SHRIMALI: There have been differences among these experts and I cannot go into the details.

SHRI BASAPPA SHETTY: What are the functions of the Central Institute of Indology?

MR. CHAIRMAN: Of the proposed Institute?

SHRI BASAPPA SHETTY: Functions of the Institute.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Of the proposed Institute?

DR. K. L. SHRIMALI: The purpose of establishing this Institute is to cater for the study of Indian languages, Indian history, Indian archaeology and its various branches.

SHRI H. C. DASAPPA: Are there not some Universities which have installed Chairs for Indology?

DR. K. L. SHRIMALI: Universities are already having this but the idea was to set up an Institute where specialised research might be carried on in this subject.

FOREIGN ECONOMIC AID TO INDIA DURING 1954-55

*39. SHRI H. C. MATHUR: Will the Minister for FINANCE be pleased to state what economic assistance has been made available to India by foreign countries so far during the year 1954-55?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER FOR FINANCE (SHRI M. C. SHAH): A statement is laid on the Table of the House. [See Appendix VIII, Annexure No. 3.]

SHRI H. C. MATHUR: May I know whether these are outright grants or loans?

SHRI M. C. SHAH: Both, grants and loans?

SHRI H. C. MATHUR: This statement does not give any indication as to which portion is loan and which portion is grant. Will the hon. Minister kindly make it clear?

SHRI M. C. SHAH: The question was with regard to the assistance made available and the reply was prepared accordingly. Now when the question is asked, I say that it covers both, loans and grants. So far as the United States of America is concerned, this year there is a loan of $ 45 million. It will carry an interest of 4 per cent, and is to be repaid within forty years.

SHRI H. C. MATHUR: May I know if it is a fact that assistance this year
