

ing for some time are not likely to be refused?

SHRI A. C. GUHA: Those banks are being given enough opportunities to rectify the defects. As soon as those defects are rectified the licences would be issued. If it is pressed too hard, then the only alternative would be to issue licences indiscriminately or refuse the licences and close down the banks.

SHRI B. C. GHOSE: Does it mean that even in regard to the scheduled banks which have not given licences so far, there are defects?

SHRI A. C. GUHA: The hon. Member can make his own surmise. I would not like to make any observation because banking is a very delicate matter.

SHRI B. C. GHOSE: May I suggest that the Reserve Bank should come to a decision one way or the other and either issue or refuse licences within a short period of time—say within a year?

SHRI A. C. GUHA: I have already stated the position.

SARDAR S. S. MAJITHIA: The items are of a secret nature and, I am afraid, cannot be disclosed on the floor of the House.

SHRI B. GUPTA: May I know if it is a fact that this Conference was being held almost at a time when some British statesmen and officials were discussing with others the formation of the S. E. A. T. O.?

SARDAR S. S. MAJITHIA: No, that is not a fact. This Conference is an annual feature and so it has nothing to do with politics.

SHRI B. GUPTA: I can quite understand that it is an annual feature. I only wanted to know whether it is a fact that this Conference was being held exactly at a time when certain British imperialists were considering a proposal for the creation of the S. E. A. T. O. which is directed also against India?

SARDAR S. S. MAJITHIA: I have already replied to that question that this Conference had nothing to do with that question.

DR. K. L. SHRIMALI: If my hon. friend had looked into the statement he would have found that most of the grants that we gave to the West Bengal Government have been utilized except in one case in 1952-53—that is item 3.

SHRI V. S. SARWATE: Do Government know that because of lack of help which the Delhi School of Social Work used to give in contacting parents the Centre is suffering much in its efficiency?
