MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME
FOR PRESENTATION OF REPORT OF JOINT COMMITTEE OF THE
HOUSES ON THE HINDU
MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE BILL.
1952.

THE MINISTER FOR LAW AND MINORITY AFFAIRS (SHRI C. C. BISWAS): Mr. Chairman, Sir, I beg to move:

"That the time appointed for the presentation of the Report of the Joint Committee of the Houses on the Bill to amend and codify the law relating to marriage and divorce among Hindus be further extended up to the last day of the second week of the next session."

SHRI P. SUNDARAYYA (Andhra): I oppose it.

THE PRIME MINISTER AND MINISTER FOR EXTERNAL AFFAIRS AND DEFENCE (SHRI JAWAHARLAL NEHRU): I should like this matter to be reconsidered. The Select Committee has been sitting indefinitely and comes to no decision at all. How are we to proceed? This is the second time that they have been asking for more time. I want that something should be done.

SHRI C. C. BISWAS: This is the second time that the Select Committee is asking for time, but it has been obliged to do so, because of the altered hours of sitting of the two Houses. The Select Committee was sitting from 9-30 A.M. to 1 P.M. every day, but that is not possible when the Houses sit for six hours a day. Therefore this motion.

MR. CHAIRMAN: You withdraw the motion and reconsider it.

SHRI S. MAHANTY (Orissa): It is an insinuation that has been made against the Committee.

SHRI JAWAHARLAL NEHRU: May I point out that we appointed this Select Committee during the last session giving them three months to sit? If they refuse to sit for three months, it is not the fault of this House. If they choose to sit only when the Houses are not meeting and if they cannot sit on Sundays or Saturdays because they are too tired, let others be appointed to the Select Committee. It is important that this important and urgent work should go on.

SHRI C. C. BISWAS: I may say that this Select Committee had been sitting before the session commenced and they were sitting from day to day. They have already had fourteen sittings

SHRI JAWAHARLAL NEHRU: I feel very strongly about it because I feel that if they proceed at the pace at which they are proceeding, they may take roughly twenty years before they come to a decision.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All the speeches hitherto made are completely irrelevant because I have not put the question to the House. As soon as Mr. Biswas moved his motion, the first thing I had to do was to put the motion to the House before you could get up and talk. You had better withdraw the motion and reconsider the matter.
