(a) what is the number of Indians residing in the different Sheikdoms on the Persian Gulf and the Arabian Sea Coast; and

(b) whether Government have diplomatic relations with those Sheikdoms?

THE PARLIAMENTARY SECRETARY TO THE PRIME MINISTER (SHRIMATI LAKSHMI MENON) : (a) There are about six thousand Indians residing in the Persian Gulf area. No information is available about the Arabian Sea Coast Sheikdoms.

SHRI SARDAR SINGH: Is the Government considering any proposal to have direct representation in the Sheikdoms to establish direct contact?

SHRIMATI LAKSHMI MENON: Sir, the proposal for opening an Indian consular office, i.e., trade agency, in these areas has been under consideration since 1949. There is also a proposal to enter into political relations with the Sheikdoms at Muscat.

SHRI SARDAR SINGH: I am not quite clear as to the answer given. The hon. Parliamentary Secretary said that a certain proposal had been under consideration since 1949, but what has happened to that proposal? Too many Sheiks?

SHRIMATI LAKSHMI MENON: We are opening consular office at Muscat, and we cannot have any political relations unless we have a special treaty with them.

SHRI JAWAHARLAL NEHRU: All kinds of proposals are made from time to time, but so far as we know, nothing has yet taken any shape. We have proposals to establish diplomatic relations in most countries where we haven't got them. Well, it is a question of priority. If we consider it urgently necessary, we do it; otherwise we postpone it. At present the proposal which we have practically agreed to is to have a Consulate at Muscat.

SHRIMATI VIOLET ALVA: How are the 6,000 Indians employed there?

SHRIMATI LAKSHMI MENON: They are employed in the oil refineries.
