SUPPLY OF AERATED WATER ON THE RAILWAYS

515. DR. SHRIMATI SEETA PARMANAND: Will the Minister for RAILWAYS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the sale of aerated water on the railway stations is undertaken by Government or private contractors on all the railway zones;

(b) if the supply is made by both the above agencies, what is the difference between the rates of the same type of aerated water supplied by Government and by the private contractors; and

(c) whether both these agencies serve at one station simultaneously?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER FOR RAILWAYS AND TRANSPORT (SHRI O. V. ALAGESAN) : (a) The sale of aerated water at railway stations is generally undertaken by private contractors under contract with the railways, the only exception being that undertaken by the departmentally run Aerated Waters Factory at Kharagpur on the B.N. Railway portion of the Eastern Railway zone.

(b) Prices vary in terms of the quality of aerated water supplied irrespective of whether it is manufactured in the departmentally run factory or sold by private contractors.

(c) No.
