

WRITTEN ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

SHIFTING OF NON-SECRETARIAT OFFICES
FROM DELHI

*404. SHRI H. C. MATHUR: Will the Minister for WORKS, HOUSING AND SUPPLY be pleased to state:

(a) whether the scheme for shifting non-Secretariat offices from Delhi has been finalised;

(b) what is the number of officers, subordinates and class IV servants in each of these offices; and

(c) what are the places to which these offices will be shifted?

THE MINISTER FOR WORKS, HOUSING AND SUPPLY (SARDAR SWARAN SINGH): (a), (b) and (c). I place on the Table of the Council a statement showing the offices which it is tentatively felt could be moved out of Delhi and the various places to which they could be moved [See Appendix VII, Annexure No. 190]. A rapid survey of the latest position in regard to the accommodation both residential and office in these towns is now being taken in hand and when this review is completed, it will be possible to consider which of these offices could be moved and if so to which towns.
