LOAN FROM THE WORLD BANK

27. SHRI M. VALIULLA: Will the Minister for FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) which country has taken the highest amount of loan from the World Bank; and

(b) whether the rate of interest charged by the World Bank is uniform for all countries?

THE MINISTER FOR FINANCE (SHRI C. D. DESHMUKH): (a) France. The amount of the loan is $250 million.

(b) Presumably the hon. Member wants to know whether in the matter of charging interest, all member countries are treated uniformly. If so, the answer is in the affirmative. The rate of interest depends on the period of amortization of the loan and has also varied from time to time according to the interest rate which the Bank has to pay on its borrowings.
